

Institutional Credentials

In addition to credentials recognized by the Coordinating Board, colleges may offer institutional credentials of fewer than 15 SCH or 360 continuing education contact hours for completion of a course or series of courses that represent achievement of an identifiable skill proficiency. Institutional Credentials do not require Coordinating Board approval and do not appear in the Board's Workforce Education Inventory.